

Cameroon Optical Cable Fittings Prices

AI Overview

Optical fiber cable prices in Cameroon vary widely, with import prices averaging around $6,550 per ton in 2023, while local market prices depend on cable type, length, and supplier. Market Overview The Cameroonian optical fiber cable market has experienced significant growth in recent years, driven by increased demand for high-speed internet and telecommunications infrastructure. In 2023, the average import price of optical fiber cables was $6,550 per ton, reflecting a 46% increase from the previous year, while export prices averaged $4,746 per ton with a declining trend compared to prior years (IndexBox) . Prices vary depending on the country of origin, with the Netherlands supplying cables at higher prices ($29,232 per ton) and Turkey at lower prices ($3,038 per ton) . Local Supplier Prices Local suppliers in Cameroon, such as NowTech, offer a range of optical network components including patch cords, RJ45 connectors, and Cat6 cables, with prices adjusted for length and type. For example, 5-meter Cat6 FTP/SFTP patch cords and connectors with protection and certification are available at competitive prices for both indoor and outdoor use . While these are primarily copper network components, similar pricing structures apply to optical fiber fittings, with costs influenced by quality, certification, and installation requirements. Cable Specifications and Fittings Optical fiber cables commonly used in Cameroon include 2-fiber monomode G657 cables with fire-resistant, halogen-free jackets and aramid reinforcement for tensile strength. These cables are suitable for indoor installations and comply with international standards such as EN 60794 and FR EN 50575 . Fittings such as connectors, splice enclosures, and patch panels are priced according to cable type and installation complexity, with professional installation recommended for optimal performance. Price Considerations Cable type: Single-mode vs. multi-mode, indoor vs. outdoor, armored vs. unarmored Length: Longer cables increase total cost proportionally Supplier and...
