

Compatible EMLAOC active optical cable Hungarian supplier

AI Overview

Hungary has multiple fiber optic and cable suppliers capable of providing EMLAOC-compatible active optical cables, including HELUKABEL, Scintilla Kft., and specialized optical fiber manufacturers. Key Hungarian Suppliers

HELUKABEL Group – An international cable manufacturer with operations in Hungary, offering a wide range of data, control, and power cables. They provide custom cable solutions suitable for high-speed optical applications, making them a potential source for EMLAOC-compatible AOCs.

Scintilla Kft. – Specializes in custom cable assemblies, signal, and power cables for telecommunications and automotive industries. Their expertise in tailored cable solutions allows for sourcing or assembling AOCs compatible with EMLAOC standards.

Comlink Electronics and EURO CABLETECHNICS KFT. – These companies manufacture assembled cables, cable harnesses, and optical fiber solutions for telecom and computer applications. They can provide high-quality optical cable assemblies suitable for active optical cable requirements.

Hungarian Optical Fiber Cable Manufacturers – Platforms like Go4WorldBusiness list multiple Hungarian suppliers offering professional optical fiber cables for telecom, computer, and industrial applications. These suppliers can be contacted directly to inquire about EMLAOC-compatible AOCs.

Additional Options

ActiveOpticalCable.com – While not Hungary-based, this platform provides high-quality AOCs for HDMI, USB, DisplayPort, and DVI with worldwide shipping. Hungarian buyers can leverage this for sourcing EMLAOC-compatible cables if local suppliers cannot meet specific technical requirements.

Procurement Tips

Use Volza's supplier database to filter Hungarian fiber optic suppliers by shipment volume, product type, and reliability metrics. This helps identify suppliers with proven export and production capabilities.
