

Junction Box Welding Price

AI Overview

Welding junction boxes range from around $10 for basic indoor models to several thousand for industrial, weatherproof enclosures. General Pricing Overview Indoor plastic or basic metal boxes: $10–$60 depending on size and material, suitable for simple indoor wiring projects. Weatherproof or industrial-rated boxes: $70–$450 for standard units, with larger or specialized enclosures costing more. Installation costs: Adding labor can range from $100–$300 for standard installations, and up to $1,000 for complex outdoor or industrial setups. Mouser Electronics Welding Junction Boxes Mouser offers a variety of welding junction boxes, typically 4-inch square with 1.5-inch depth, with prices varying by quantity and specifications. These are suitable for industrial automation and welding applications. Hensel Welding Junction Boxes Hensel provides a detailed catalog of IP66/IP67 weatherproof welding junction boxes for outdoor and industrial use: Small boxes (0.75–2.5 sq.mm cable capacity): Prices range from 178,800 to 392,400 (currency as per catalog) depending on color and model. Medium boxes (1.5–10 sq.mm): Prices range from 472,800 to 1,575,600. Large boxes (10–50 sq.mm): Prices range from 1,305,600 to 8,041,200. Empty IP65 boxes with plain walls: Size 1 (300 x 150 x 170 mm) costs 1,419,600; Size 2 (300 x 300 x 170 mm) costs 1,723,200. McMaster-Carr Options McMaster-Carr offers over 2,800 junction box products in various sizes and materials, including metal and plastic options suitable for welding environments, with same or next-day delivery. Key Considerations Material: Metal boxes are more durable for welding environments, while plastic is cheaper but less resistant to heat and impact. Weatherproofing: Outdoor or industrial-rated boxes (IP66/IP67) cost more but protect against dust, moisture, and welding sparks. Size and cable capacity: Larger boxes or those accommodating more conductors are more expensive. Brand and customization: Well-known brands like Hensel may carry a premium for quality and...
