Pricing Overview The average export price for cable trays from North Korea is approximately $206.24 per unit, based on data from US Customs Department records, though prices may vary depending on type, size, and material specifications.

Local suppliers in North Korea, such as Micro Sheet Crafts, provide a wide range of cable trays with customized specifications and modular designs, ensuring durability and compliance with quality standards.

Supplier Options

Micro Sheet Crafts: Offers high-grade steel and other materials for durable cable trays, with options for customized packing and modular configurations. They emphasize on-time delivery and affordable pricing.

Other North Korean manufacturers: While specific company names are limited, the market includes suppliers capable of producing perforated, ladder, and solid-bottom cable trays suitable for industrial and commercial installations.

Factors Affecting Price

Material: Steel, aluminum, or coated metals can influence cost.

Tray Type: Ladder, perforated, or solid-bottom designs have different manufacturing costs.

Dimensions: Width, height, and length of trays affect pricing.

Customization: Modular or specialized designs may increase unit cost.

Quantity: Bulk orders often reduce per-unit pricing.

Recommendations

Request a formal quotation from suppliers like Micro Sheet Crafts, specifying type, dimensions, and quantity.

Compare export prices if considering international procurement, keeping in mind shipping and customs regulations.

Verify quality certifications and material standards to ensure long-term reliability. By contacting local suppliers directly, you can obtain precise quotes tailored to your project requirements and ne...
